

SmartManager

Counting PC Database Management Software

SmartManager is your complete software package to manage your counting application. The software includes a Smart + data server, which enables peer-peer or network communication with the Smart + and Smart Count products.

Specifications
Connectivity	Support for up to thirty two Smart + or Smart Manager networked products
Supported Products	4-Series Smart + BBA462, BBK462, IND465
Supported Product Interfaces	RS232, Ethernet
PC Hardware Requirements	CPU: Pentium II or better Disk Space: 40 MB minimum
PC System Requirements	Operating System: Windows 2000, XP

SmartManager

Software

Features	Benefits
Central Database Hosting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Allows networking of Smart + terminals and compact scales into a common database hosted on a PC. Supports 10,000 articles. Will work with legacy Viper Smart Count product as well.
Database Management	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Allows PC based editing\uploading\downloading of Smart + database. Exports and imports database for standard PC spreadsheet and database applications
Product Configuration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Allows PC editing\upload\download of Smart + setup files. Provides a quick and secure way to commission new and existing Smart + scales

Produced in a facility that is

